WHEREAS, the County Council further recognizes that the ability to shop on Sundays will be a convenience to the public; and,

WHEREAS, in light of the foregoing declarations, Clarendon County, a body politic and corporate and a political subdivision of the State of South Carolina, acting by and through its County Council desires to exercise its authority under Section 53-1-160 of the Code and suspend indefinitely the Sunday work prohibitions contained in Section 53-1-5 et. seq. of the Code, thus allowing businesses in Clarendon County to open prior to 1:30 p.m. on Sundays:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by Clarendon County Council in a meeting duly assembled, that:

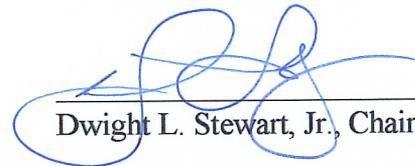

1. Pursuant to Section 53-1-160 of the Code of Laws of South Carolina (1976, as amended), Clarendon County Council hereby suspends indefinitely the Sunday work prohibitions contained in Section 53-1-5 et. seq. of the Code, thus allowing businesses in Clarendon County to open prior to 1:30 p.m. on Sundays.

The court may order the employer to rehire or reinstate the employee in

4. Should any part or portion of this resolution be deemed unconstitutional or otherwise unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, such finding shall not affect the remainder hereof, all of which is hereby deemed separable.
